Students will be given several songs to prepare for the week. If they have songs already, the instructor may choose to use them to focus on.

In each class students will receive vocal instruction, learn Broadway show tunes and how to present them

Instructor: Caitlyn Oenbrink

Caitlyn is a vocal performance and public relations double major at the University of South Carolina. At USC, she is a vocal student of Dr. Tina Milhorn Stallard and is a member of the University Choir, School of Music Mentor Program, Opera at USC, and of USC's Delta Zeta chapter. Caitlyn is also a member of the Washington Street Methodist Choir under the direction of Arletta Raley in Columbia, SC. Prior to going to Carolina, Caitlyn studied voice under Ms. Nancy Stedman of Mount Pleasant, SC. Caitlyn is a graduate of Fort Dorchester High School, where she was a four year member of the award-winning Patriot Pride Show Choir and performed leading roles in the yearly musicals. She is also a Charleston Youth Company alumni where she performed many musical theater roles and solos. Her previous roles include Marian in The Music Man, The Narrator in Joseph and the Techni-Colored Dreamcoat, Annie in Annie, Bonnie Jean in Brigadoon, and Princess Winifred in Once Upon A Mattress. Caitlyn has received numerous awards including the Charleston Music Club Scholarship, Summerville Music Club Scholarship, The Annette Young Scholarship, and the Charleston Symphony Orchestra Scholarship. She recently completed a summer internship at the Metropolitan Opera in NYC. This is her 4th summer teaching for CYC.
